

This technology just doesn't make sense. It generates interference that negatively impacts existing services. There are other alternatives that work. Please stop waiting taxpayer money on something that has been proven to be an incorrect choice.